

German Studies Colloquium Series and Faculty Lectures, Fall 2017

Oct. 09: Claudia Sandberg (University of Melbourne):
A Showing of Hidden Films. A Journey from Exile to Memory.
(Anthropology Bldg., Haury 216, 6:00-8:00 p.m.)

Oct. 20: Jesse Archbold and Carolin Radtke (UA German Studies):
“Hans Sachs and the Protestant Reformation” and
“Travelogue Literature in the Sixteenth Century”
(LSB 346, 12:00-1:15 p.m.)

Oct. 24: Steven D. Martinson:
“Symbols of Revolution: Legacies of Luther in Germany”
(Helen Rubel Rm., Poetry Center, 7:00-8:00 p.m.)
COH Tucson Humanities Festival

Oct. 31: Steven D. Martinson, Roundtable with several UA Professors:
“This is the Day! The 500th Anniversary of the '95 Theses against Indulgences”
(Main Library Special Collections, 6:00 -7:30)
Division for Late Middle Ages and Reformation Studies and University Libraries

Nov. 3: Albrecht Classen (University Distinguished Professor, UArizona):
“Exploring the Literary Terrains of the German Sixteenth Century”
(Learning Services Bldg. 346, 12:00-1:00 p.m.)

Nov. 08: Christina Gerhardt (University of Hawai'i, Mānoa):
“Atlas of (Remote) Islands and Sea Level Rise”
(Environment and Natural Resources 2, S107, 6:00-7:00 p.m.)

Nov. 20: Thomas A. Kovach:
“How Jewish was the Turn-of-the-Century Vienna?”
(Hillel Foundation, 1245 E. 2nd St., 4:00-5:00 p.m.)
Arizona Center for Judaic Studies Lecture Series

Nov. 28: Gerald R. Kleinfeld: The German Elections 2017
(Chavez 104, 12:30-1:20 p.m.)